Letter No 89 Sunday 28th Dec.

My own darling heart -

I arrived back from my leave visit to the Hopkins in Haifa at 7.30 this evening & have been busy ever since, as many things had to happen during my absence & nothing at all having happened for 3½ weeks. And I also found a large bundle of letters & parcels awaiting me, including your letter no 61 from Dec 26th & No 62 of 27.8 Nov. The latter giving me the copy of Hughes' article. It is now 11.30 pm. I mean to write you a long letter & shall be awake & busy most of the night. I have so much to tell you about the visit & so many things to say. But I will be sure to answer properly your 5 delayed letters which arrived last week. And I will get you a gain this week. I adore & love you & long for you with all my heart & soul my darling. Thank you very much indeed for the cards. We are very surprised & pleased to have that record. I used to play it on the piano with Mrs Hopkins & often sang it with Mr Hopkins. I got back to Haifa & found your letter with Enclosure & one from Mrs Hopkins & one from Mrs Bowden & one from Mrs Hopkins & one from Mrs Bowden & one from Mrs Hopkins & one from Mrs Bowden

Monday 29th Dec. I really must buy another pad, as this stuff is too thin to be legible on both sides. It is annoying because this pad cost 3/6 & I had only three days. I had better tell you about the important people of all as that is the most important thing I should tell you. I have not yet had any letters today to say so. It is dreadfully sad disappointing, but you can only face it & I suppose you will be getting mine soon. I have had no letter at all, so I suppose there is still a few days to go & one of us will have to wait. Even the Army could not be so unkind as to keep me here for the whole 90 days. But I do think they might have the courtesy & common decency to tell me if only to say that I can't have it & be done with it. I am getting fed up with applying for a Commander's Card & still not getting it. If I had not left my car with a very few valuables in I should certainly have sold it & all of my possessions. But I shall not give up. I shall write a personal letter to Col Lodwick & ask his advice perhaps he will be able to help me. I go straight over to see them about it. Many thanks for your letter. I have been to the Theatre twice & enjoyed it very much indeed. In any case I shall apply again at the first opportunity & will be able to send you a letter as well. Must end. Love. Send it as fast possible that Col L may be able to give helpful advice. Love to you all

Ernest & I cheap. I went up to Nice on Wednesday afternoon. Amos Eve by bus 60 cubs for 2/6. Everything & Jack Hopkins in pandas — we in a big flat-bottomed 1 arrived as a 10,000 ton oil tanker had just blown up in the harbour & sank — was burning fiercely. The Captain was in hospital & poor Jack was left in charge. He had probably been asleep & delayed our sailing from months ago — collapse back. Fortunately [illegible] boss of life was very small — his boss was [illegible] Edward he [illegible] to our 2a boat. [illegible] from his letter I shall [illegible] Sunday. [illegible] kind & good of them to have us for so long & did not answer my telegram because when I left Nice we made up promise not to be so long in coming to see them again next time. We really did nothing all the time, except on Sunday drank champagne & [illegible] Good while it lasted & I enjoyed it very much. Jack had [illegible] & [illegible] day & a bit [illegible] & [illegible] & [illegible] &

Orfeo an absolute dragoon [illegible] stop talking for a moment. I hear the [illegible] of the [illegible] school of Naples that no German musician should be [illegible] after the war. An intelligent doctrine [illegible] such that [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Sees me darling. Thanks really so of them are quite good — I see I can't get the cheap camera & keep both and expose the other one. I must admit it pulls dolly. But it does me much more I know that you are quite well & busy darling. Perhaps only appears because you have a much more strenuous life than the people — around always. We caught in a pouring of rain boarding the tram, darling, that you & Mrs Maxwell have really good photograph taken together. Not a bit out of Madame Yvonne. But one evening I must go. Will you please do this for me darling — I know you do. I am so sorry that we lost that cheap one taken — they are below — comes out of focus — you must look into it — I don't like you in it. Now please do darling I have so much more to tell you & others.
Must not stop now — for the time being as I must get on with your work. Must & shall see you tomorrow — with great love. Bless you. Love. We are having good fun finding in the cars. Please give a kiss from from his daddy — all my dearest love darling to you. xxxx
